

Grant Westfield to exhibit new brand, Naturepanel, and award-winning bathroom panel brand Multipanel at Clerkenwell Design Week

The UK's leading wall panel company, Grant Westfield, is to exhibit its new nature-inspired panel brand, Naturepanel and sister brand, Multipanel, at this year's Clerkenwell Design week (21-23 May 2024).

The new brand serves as a modern, easy to maintain alternative to traditional slat walls that are currently on trend. Inspired by natural materials and Scandinavian style, Naturepanel boasts an appealing aesthetic but also ensures effortless maintenance making it the ideal choice for multiple spaces throughout the home, but also commercial spaces such as, hotels, gyms and, bars.

Also on the stand will be The Tile Collection by Multipanel. Awarded Best Bathroom Surface at the Ideal Home Awards 2024, the collection features nine decors across colour, marble and mineral with an etched grout line, and are available in a variety of patterns – from large tile to metro and herringbone. The winning decors provide the aesthetic benefits of a stylish tile, but with the simplicity and ease of high-performance bathroom panels.

The stand is located in the Contract and Work Building (stand number C2).

Jamie Sandilands, Specification Director, at Grant Westfield, says: "This will be our second successive year exhibiting at Clerkenwell, and we are excited to be showcasing Naturepanel for the first time. The collection is designed to offer a contemporary alternative to the traditional slat wall, complementing a range of interiors, from the home to hospitality spaces. Also on stand is Multipanel, whose design-led collections are the leading alternative to tiles.

“There is a growing demand for design-led alternatives to tiles and wooden slat walls that deliver several benefits, with one of the most pressing being sustainability. Our products now hold an environmental product declaration (EPD) that provide specifiers, architects and builders greater visibility on the environmental impact of materials, helping them make more sustainable choices.”

Also on the Grant Westfield stand will be VADO, who like Grant Westfield is part of Norcross PLC. VADO will be showcasing its brassware and vanity units.
